Did you know...?

Some Things Never Change

From the Tazewell Whig, January 10, 1845

To the Tax Payers of Tazewell County,

The undersigned would respectfully recommend a general meeting of the citizens of Tazewell country, at Tremont, on the 18th day of January, 1845, to take into consideration measures for reducing the salaries of the State Officers and members of the Legislature, and to urge upon the Legislature the necessity of immediately adopting some means calculated to wipe out the stigma at present resting upon our State in relation to her indebtedness.

Some prominent Tremont men who signed include Nathan B. Kellogg, J.L. James, Issac Leonard, H.L. Pratt, A.H. Staltonstall, Benjamin F. James, G.F. Staltonstall, and others as well as several men from the county.

Illinois became a state in 1818.

Quarantining Books

Tremont Library continues to quarantine incoming books for a period of about three days, which is the amount of time recommended by our library system to ensure that no COVID-19 particles survive on a book or movie surface. Items will remain on your account during the quarantine period.

Interlibrary Loan

Did you know the library is much bigger than the items we have on our shelves? Delivery vans visit us daily to drop off books from other libraries for our patrons (and to take some of ours to other libraries too). That's why if we don't have something, we'd be happy to get it for you!

So how, exactly, does one put a book on hold? You can call us at 309-925-5432, but it's also easy to order it online or from the RSACat app.

Here is a handy video showing you how to use the RSACat Mobile app on your phone or tablet:

(Of course, you can also order from any computer by going to <http://tremontlibrary.com>)

We've been so delighted to welcome back our community to our building this month! If you haven't visited us yet, we'd love to welcome you back! Curbside service is still available for anyone who is not comfortable visiting the library, just give us a call at 309-925-5432.

This is not a Turk Center or Kindergarten Screening. The purpose is to screen developmental levels in motor skills, general knowledge, social skills, and speech/language skills in order to access the need for special education services. Further evaluation may be recommended. If you have concerns in the areas listed or would like reassurance that your child is progressing well, you can call and make an appointment.

Your copy should address 3 key questions: Who am I writing for? (Audience) Why should they care? (Benefit) What do I want them to do here? (Call-to-Action)

Create a great offer by adding words like "free" "personalized" "complimentary" or "customized." A sense of urgency often helps readers take an action, so think about inserting phrases like "for a limited time only" or "only 7 remaining!"
